

Overview of Phase 2: Multi-View Backdoor Risk Fusion and Calibrated Treatment

Parameter updates are transformed into comparable risk scores using DCT low-frequency energy, gradient L2 norm, and Gram-matrix deviation.

Phase 2 is designed to be stable under non-IID client updates by comparing each client against a clean reference distribution rather than a single threshold.